BRIAN CHILDERS | CLINICIAN

Brian is an accomplished composer, and clinician. His choral, instrumental, and handbell works are performed throughout the world and he has been a featured performer and clinician at numerous music conferences and workshops across the nation.

Brian has a bachelor of music degree in piano performance and a master of divinity degree in church music. From 2012-2015, he served as Artistic Director of the Queen City Ringers, a Community Handbell Ensemble based in Charlotte, North Carolina. He currently serves as Director of Children and Youth Music at Myers Park United Methodist in Charlotte where he oversees ministry to children and youth and conducts six handbell choirs.

Brian and his wife Keely Childers, a professional counselor, have two adult children, Hannah and Spencer, both of whom served as drum majors in their college marching bands. When not involved in music, Brian is an avid runner and a rabid fan of the San Antonio Spurs. His compositions and arrangements are available through a variety of publishers. You can learn more about Brian and his compositions at BrianChilders.org
