Sunday, December 20
3:00 pm

Progress Energy

Center for the Performing Arts

Adults - $18 Seniors - $16
Groups (10 or more) & Students - $14

All tickets are $2 more at the door on the day of the concert. Group tickets are available only in advance.

"Early Bird" tickets are available through November 30th. See order form inside.

The holiday concerts have become a favorite tradition for many families in the triangle and beyond, with over 4,000 people attending the three concerts. This year, the concerts will include selections performed by The Raleigh Ringers and special guest, the Sanderson Sandpipers. The Sandpipers is an auditioned mixed choral group of talented singers from Sanderson High School in Raleigh. Get your tickets now - the holiday concerts have sold out in past years.

Tickets are available at all Ticketmaster outlets and the Progress Energy Box Office.

This project is funded in part by the City of Raleigh based on recommendations of the Raleigh Arts Commission.

Pinnacle Returns!

"Pinnacle," the American Guild of English Handbell Ringers' signature event for performing handbell ensembles, has been brought back by popular demand and is scheduled to run from July 18 to July 21, 2010, in Nashville, Tennessee. The Raleigh Ringers are thrilled to accept an invitation to present the final concert of the event, to be held on the evening of Wednesday, July 21, on the General Jackson Showboat. Although this will be the third time The Raleigh Ringers will perform a "Pinnacle" headline concert, it will definitely be the first time on a floating venue! The concert is open to the general public, as well as event attendees, so come join us!

Who Are The Raleigh Ringers?

As we come to the end of another performance year, thoughts turn to upcoming auditions. 70+ ringers have donned the “clonewear” designating them as a member in the 20 years since The Raleigh Ringers formed. Each and every one of those 70+ ringers left his or her mark on the group in some fashion, and The Raleigh Ringers would not be where it is today without the commitment, sacrifice and hard work of every past and present member.

Who really are The Raleigh Ringers? Their stories have, for the most part, remained untold to our audiences.

We are people who have rung handbells for over 35 years and people who have rung fewer than 10 and everything in between.

We are people who moved here to audition for the group and people who have lived in Raleigh all our lives.

We are professional musicians, amateur musicians, and “handbell only” musicians.

We are people who came to the group knowing every advanced technique that exists and people who had never handled more than two bells and their accidents.

We are lawyers, teachers, scientists, accountants, engineers, artists, nurses, homemakers, computer programmers, and students.

We are people who love to ring handbells and bring the joy of this wonderful art to audiences around the country.

We are the people who ring beside you in your bell choir, the people you direct, and the people who direct you.

We are YOU.

So what are you waiting for? Take a chance and AUDITION!

Education Program

Now that The Raleigh Ringers own a building, we repeatedly ask ourselves: "How can we more fully utilize our wonderful facility and emphasize community outreach?"

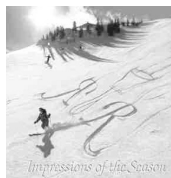

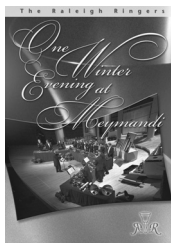

The answer? Let's hold classes at Raleigh Ringers Central!

Our plan is to offer educational workshops on a variety of topics at various times during the day or evening, depending on desired content and teacher availability.

We'd like YOUR help with this project! What classes would be of interest to you or your ringers? Which days and times would be most convenient for you?

All suggestions are welcome; just email them to RR.Survey@rr.org. We look forward to sharing our knowledge (and building!) with you!

Happy Anniversary!

Well, almost -- Our 20th year is fast approaching!

We are excited to announce that plans to celebrate this miles will include presenting the 2010 Spring Concert on May 23 (time tbd) in our favorite retro venue, Stewart Theatre on the campus of NC State University. At this event, "Friends of The Raleigh Ringers" will enjoy not only complimentary tickets and preferred seating, but also a 20th Anniversary Gala in honor of our "Friends," "Opening New Doors" building campaign donors, and members of The Raleigh Ringers, past and present.

Save the date now, and make plans to join us as we celebrate 20 great years of ringing!

Have a favorite piece from the past 20 years? Send an email to RR.Survey@rr.org and you just might get to hear it next year!

New Music

Two newly commissioned pieces joined the ranks of "The Raleigh Ringers Series" (published by Jeffers Handbell Supply) in 2009. "Tarantella," a lively arrangement by Martha Lynn Thompson of the traditional Italian folk dance, incorporates melodic lines rung on Silver Melody Bells and Whitechapel bells throughout the piece for added texture.

"Toccatà Allegro," by Mallory Ferraro, Julie Turner and Jefferey A. Hall, was commissioned as the direct result of Dave Harris having been favorably impressed with several of Hall's works (which The Raleigh Ringers recorded for handbell demonstration CDs.) The following quote from Julie Turner describes how this catchy tune came to be:

"I composed the melodies and framework for the various sections of the piece, and then Jeff worked his magic by incorporating additional color, texture, tension, excitement and brilliance. Here's the twist, however: prior to introducing it to Jeff, my 16-year old daughter Mallory heard me working on the piece and became intrigued by it. Soon, Mallory was adding HER touch to the piece (a first!), which made it even more exciting to forward to Jeff for his reaction & input!"

Both of these new compositions have been very well received in concert this year, and we look forward to programming them again in the future!

Remembering David R. Davidson 1948-2009

His arm slides around my shoulder and gives a wonderful side-hug, and he says, "It's so good to see you here." That's my favorite memory of David Davidson.

On Saturday, September 5th, David lost his two-year battle with cancer. David was an Honorary Life Member in AGEHR, active in the guild for over 20 years.; he was maestro extraordinaire at Distinctly Bronze and other events. His presence will be greatly missed and forever honored. Additionally, David directed the Dallas Symphony Chorus and served as Director of Music and Arts at Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, TX.

David's leadership both from the podium and in the life he lived was inspirational. With wisdom, vision, and unflappable calm, he made the music soar under his direction. He often spoke of "the musical line" and had a way of pulling out that voice and making the emotion of a piece speak to the musician. His smile and laughter were infectious and will remain in the memories of those who were privileged to know him.

The Raleigh Ringers were honored to have been hosted by David twice—in 2004 at Highland Park Presbyterian Church, and in 2007 at Highland Park United Methodist Church. David also provided several private workshops for us when he was in Raleigh. Always professional and very complimentary, David encouraged us to grow musically and shared our enthusiasm for our art.

Our director, Dave Harris, was able to attend the funeral service for David Davidson in Dallas. The service was a glorious celebration of the life of an incredible musician and person, and was highlighted by orchestral and choral presentations of music by Handel, Brahms and Mendelssohn.

I will forever remember those encouraging words David spoke to me, and will do my best to live up the expectations I believe he had for us all. On behalf of The Raleigh Ringers, our sympathies are extended to David's wife, Judy, to his children Chris and Jena, and to his mother, siblings, and grandchildren. His memory remains with us and we will be forever grateful for having known him. And in his memory, I give this poem:

The heavenly choir rejoices as David leads them in song,
And the bells peal in mourning all the day long.
Your smile, your laughter, your true joy for life,
The strength of your will, and the love for your wife.

Great power you showed in the battle well fought,
So much we have learned from all that you taught.
These treasures you left for us to discern,
And to pass on to others for love in return.

Prayers for your family both near and far,
Look up to your glorious heaven-bound star,
For there's where we find it, and knew all along,
In you was the spirit—the great maestro of song.

Summer Tour 2010

The Raleigh Ringers will be traveling to Topeka, Kansas next summer to present the featured concert and teach classes at the AGEHR Area VIII Festival. We had a wonderful time at the Area VIII festival in 2004 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and are excited to return. We will be taking a bit of a circuitous route to Kansas on the week-long tour that leads up to the festival. After leaving Raleigh, we will be presenting a concert in Huntsville, Alabama, followed by concerts in Gulfport, Mississippi, Calhoun, Louisiana, Plano, Texas and finally Wichita, Kansas before we cruise into Topeka. This tour will add two brand-new states to our list of states we've performed in, bringing the total to 36!!

We'd like to thank all of the "Opening New Doors" donors who have so generously supported our capital campaign. We have raised almost $90,000 towards our goal of $150,000. But we still have a long way to go to reach the goal and pay for our building.

We have extended the campaign one more year, through December 2010, and have expanded it to include pledges payable by monthly installments. We hope you will consider making a donation or pledge in 2010 to the "Opening New Doors" campaign in celebration of The Raleigh Ringers' 20th anniversary.
