IT'S NOT TOO LATE...

...To see your name in lights! The Raleigh Ringers' three-year building campaign, "Opening New Doors," will close on December 31, but you still have time to donate to this worthy fund (tax deductible, as always) and join those whose names will forever appear front and center on the VIP wall in "Raleigh Ringers Central."

To all of the generous donors who have helped make our long-time dream a reality, we offer our sincere thanks! Your support will allow The Raleigh Ringers to continue to fulfill our mission to entertain, educate and encourage through the art of handbell ringing!

NEW CHRISTMAS CD!

The response to our new Holiday CD, "A Wintry Mix", has been INCREDIBLE!

"Finally, the TSO arrangements on a CD!"

"It's amazing what you do and what all you incorporate with your choices of bells and chimes."

"You've a great mix of music on the new CD, and the recording and performance are both, as always, EXEMPLARY!"

See inside for the tracklist and order info!

New Music

This fall, The Raleigh Ringers will debut three commissioned works! Sandra Eithun's Saviour of the Nations, Come is a magnificent setting of the hymn tune that is enhanced by Gregorian chant on suspended bells as well as sections of subtle orchestra chime echoes. The First Noel, arranged by Cathy Moklebust, begins simply using chimes and bells, then builds to a regal ending reminiscent of that of her Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence. The Raleigh Ringers' own Keith Burt brings the third new work to us, the "secret" classic rock piece for 2010! Be sure to watch for details and tune in as a local Raleigh radio show streams this perennial favorite live in December.
