

THE RALEIGH RINGERS COVID-19 HEALTH ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This document contains important information about the COVID-19 public health crisis. Our decisions are based in part on recommendations by the Center for Disease Control, Wake County and City of Raleigh protocols, and considerations of the location and environment.

Please read this carefully and let a member of The Raleigh Ringers know if you have any questions. When you sign this document, it will be an official agreement between you and The Raleigh Ringers.

Risks of Opting for In-Person Services

You understand that by attending the event, you are assuming the risk of exposure to the coronavirus (or other public health risk).

Your Responsibility to Minimize Your Exposure

The Raleigh Ringers is requesting you agree to take certain precautions which will help keep everyone safer from exposure, illness, and possible death. If you do not adhere to these safeguards, you will be asked to leave the event. Initial each to indicate that you understand and agree to these actions:

- _____ You will only attend the event if you are symptom free.
- _____ You will only attend the event if you have been free from fever for a minimum of 10 days prior to the date of the event.
- _____ You will NOT attend the event if you have been in contact with someone who has tested positive within the last 14 days.
- _____ You will adhere to the safe distancing precautions The Raleigh Ringers has set up for the event. (For example, you won't move chairs or sit where we have signs asking you not to sit.)
- _____ You will always wear a mask during the event, except for when eating or drinking.
- _____ If you test positive for the COVID-19 within 7 days after the event, you will notify The Raleigh Ringers so that all attendees can be notified and take appropriate precautions. (All names will remain confidential.)

The Raleigh Ringers' Responsibility

- The Raleigh Ringers will wear masks.
- Hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol will be available at the registration desk.

The Raleigh Ringers may alter the above precautions if additional local, state, or federal orders or guidelines are published. If that happens, we will notify you about any necessary changes.
